MADRESSA EDUCATION THOUGH THE NOVEMBER LOCKDOWN

Asalaamu Alaykum W.W.

Following on from our previous correspondence, the Government has now issued further guidance which now makes it clear that madrassas are not exempt from lockdown which has come in to force as from the 5th of November.

As a result, we will be reimplementing our distant learning programme adopted from during the first lockdown earlier this year. Online classes will commence on the 6th of November, with today being set aside for teacher training and allow learning schedules to be developed.

Tuition will be either via Zoom web meetings WhatsApp video calls or phone depending on your child's age and current learning programme. Parents will be required to take more responsibility in their children's learning and your child's teacher will be in touch to confirm more details.

Please help create the right environment for distance learning by ensuring;

- Your child has sufficient privacy to study between 17:00 – 19:00
- Minimise all distractions from family, technology and anything else
- Your child device remains on mute unless its his/her turn to speak
- Ensure any homework or sabak set is completed promptly

The Distance learning program will remain in place until further notice. If you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact;

Imam Arshad – Head Teacher 07729053312

Sharifa Aapa – Lead for girls Makhtab

We hope you will be supportive of the measures we are implementing to ensure we remain compliant with the law.
